Foreword

Kia ora tena koutou katoa,

Contained in this appendix is a collection of personal profiles voluntarily provided by tangata whenua to raise awareness about the talent and skills we have to offer. This appendix is fluid, alive, and forever changing and growing, I hope to reach out and find more tangata whenua to expand this resource and help our whānau connect, and I look forwards toward fostering collaboration and unity in the spirit of this kaupapa.

If you would like to stay up to date with this project or get involved, or if you can whakapapa to Manaia, Hauraki, and would like to share your mahi and kaupapa, please find the project page on my website at: www.tewharau.com/whakamaaurutangq or send me an email.

If you see something that you would like clarification on, a mistake, or you would like to update or remove your profile, please reach out through an email so I can investigate it.

I hope you enjoy meeting our talented tangata whenua and seeing all the amazing skills we have to offer.

Nga Mihi

Acknowledgments

To all tangata whenua, artists and practitioners who have taken a leap of faith by sending me your profiles and work, I sincerely thank you for entrusting me to present your mahi and kaupapa, I hope this index can help connect you with more people and that your kaupapa and mahi may flourish and blossom like the harakeke.

Our tūpuna and all those that came before us who have been strong kaitiaki to have given us these wonderful opportunities and still guide us all in our hearts, minds, and souls.

A special thank you to kaumatua for your ongoing support and guidance within iwi and tangata whenua affairs and for always encouraging my creative work in the past. I hold the deepest respect for you, your work, and all that you've done for iwi over the years.

To Ngāti Maru, Ngaati Whanaunga, Ngāti Tamatera, and Ngāti Pukenga, and all those who whakapapa to the tūpuna whenua of Manaia, Hauraki.

Thank you to those tangata whenua for helping me to reconnect with my tūpuna whenua and the community of Manaia, much love and respect. Thank you for all your contributions, connections, and the kōrero. I look forward to learning more with you all.

To all our tamariki who we vest our future to, I hope you may be inspired to embark on your own creative journeys and help to carry on the kaupapa of your tūpuna.

Aroha nui.

Calling All Tangata Whenua of Manaia, Hauraki!

Calling All Tangata Whenua of Manaia!
Inviting all who can whakapapa to Manaia.

I'm creating an index of our Tangata Whenua Talent, to share with our Iwi leaders and greater Whānau so they know who we are and the talents we can offer.

Skilled in Toi Māori, Rongoā, Kapa Haka or Performance arts, Culture, Ecology, Biodiversity, Sciences, Architecture, or Business?
We want to hear from you.

Send a 1 page profile showcasing your mahi, or a heartfelt introduction on why connecting with the Tūpuna Whenua and Iwi could help you or the community.

Your contributions will help shape the vibrant cultural hub we aspire to be.

Send to: culturalhub@tewharau.com

Provide only 1 page in DOC or PDF form, include photos, your name and whakapapa, and your social handles if you wish.

Artists, designers, creatives: Make something cool and go to town, this is your showcase!
